1. Thank you to Miss Wood, Mr Langdon, Mrs Feldberg, students and staff for their contribution to the Fine Art, Textiles, Engineering and Resistant Materials Exhibition last week, which once again was superb.
2. On Monday we look forward to the official opening of the new onsite Integrated Health Centre. The building will be opened by Cllr Armand Toms, the Mayor of Looe. Officials from the NHS and school Governors will also be in attendance. Students Tobias Robertson (Student leader for health and wellbeing ) and Martha Rawe (member of Cornwall’s students’ HeadStart board) will both be giving speeches and assisting with the opening.
3. Thank you to Mrs Owen for preparing and taking the students for the Magistrates’ Court Mock Trial competition regional heat at Newport Magistrates’ Court on Saturday. The students performed really well and received certificates from Kevin Thomas, High Sheriff of Kent. Whilst they did not win overall, there were some excellent performances and students presented themselves well and were superb ambassadors for the Academy.
4. On Wednesday representatives from the Diana Award will be visiting the school to up-skill our Year 8 e-safety mentors. As a host school we will also be joined by students and staff from Liskeard School and Community College. The students will be supported in their knowledge of e-safety issues and will be trained to deliver sessions to fellow Year 8 and Year 7 peers. This follows on from PSHCE sessions that our mentors delivered in the autumn term.
5. GCSE examinations begin next week. Lunchtime will change to 12.25-1.10pm from Monday 15 May until Friday 16 June inclusive.
6. There will be an opportunity for staff to meet with Penhaligon’s Friends on Wednesday after school.
7. Please note that Mr Minnette will be on annual leave this week.
